Where Elegance Meets Experience

Locate us:

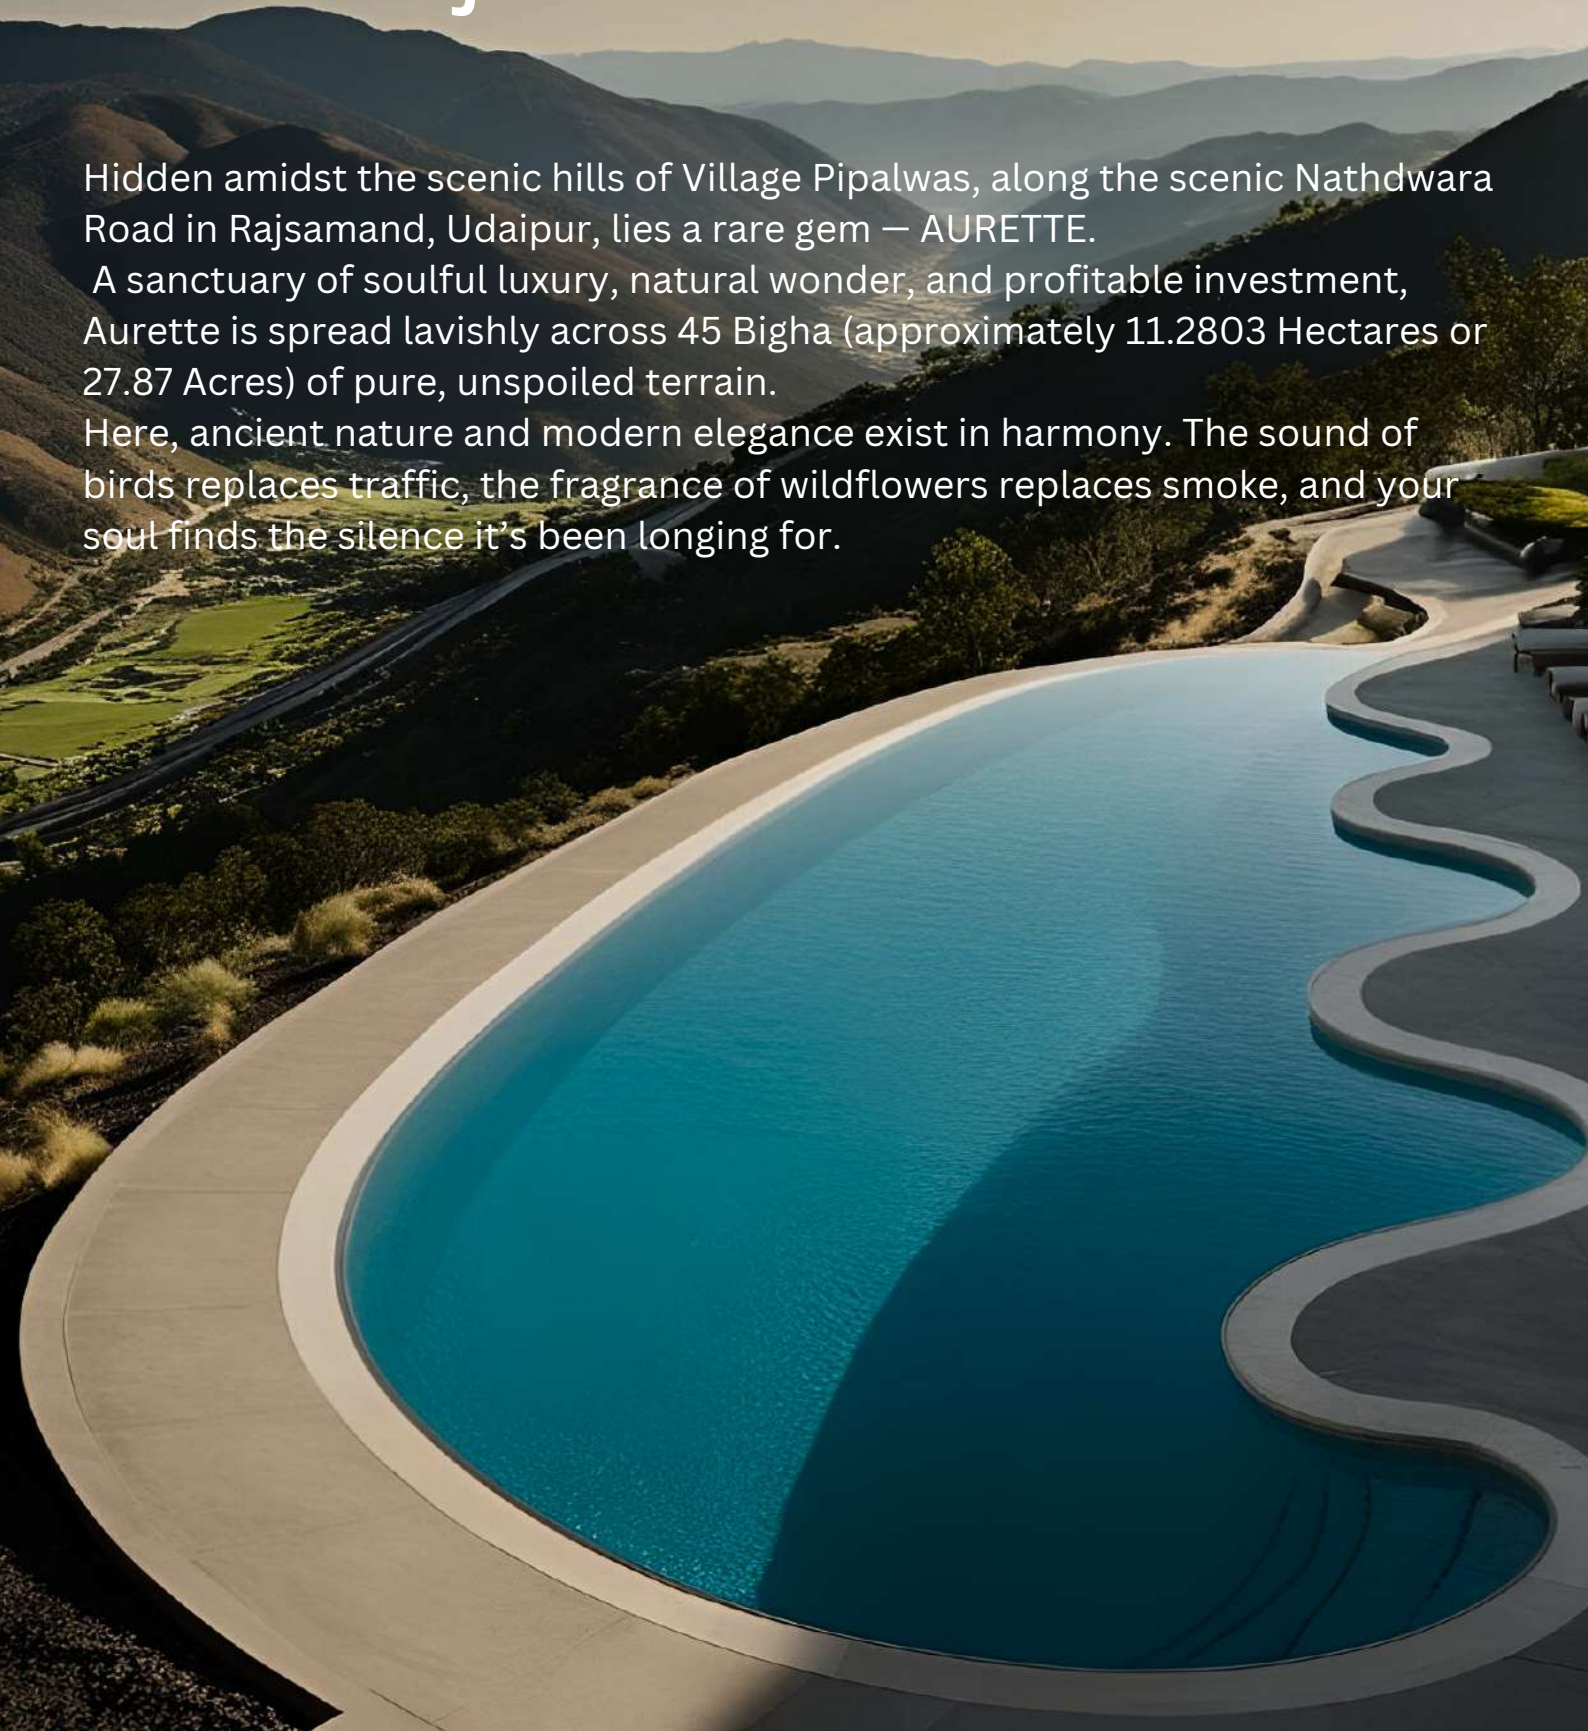

An Oasis of Tranquility in Rajasthan.

Hidden amidst the scenic hills of Village Pipalwas, along the scenic Nathdwara Road in Rajsamand, Udaipur, lies a rare gem — AURETTE.

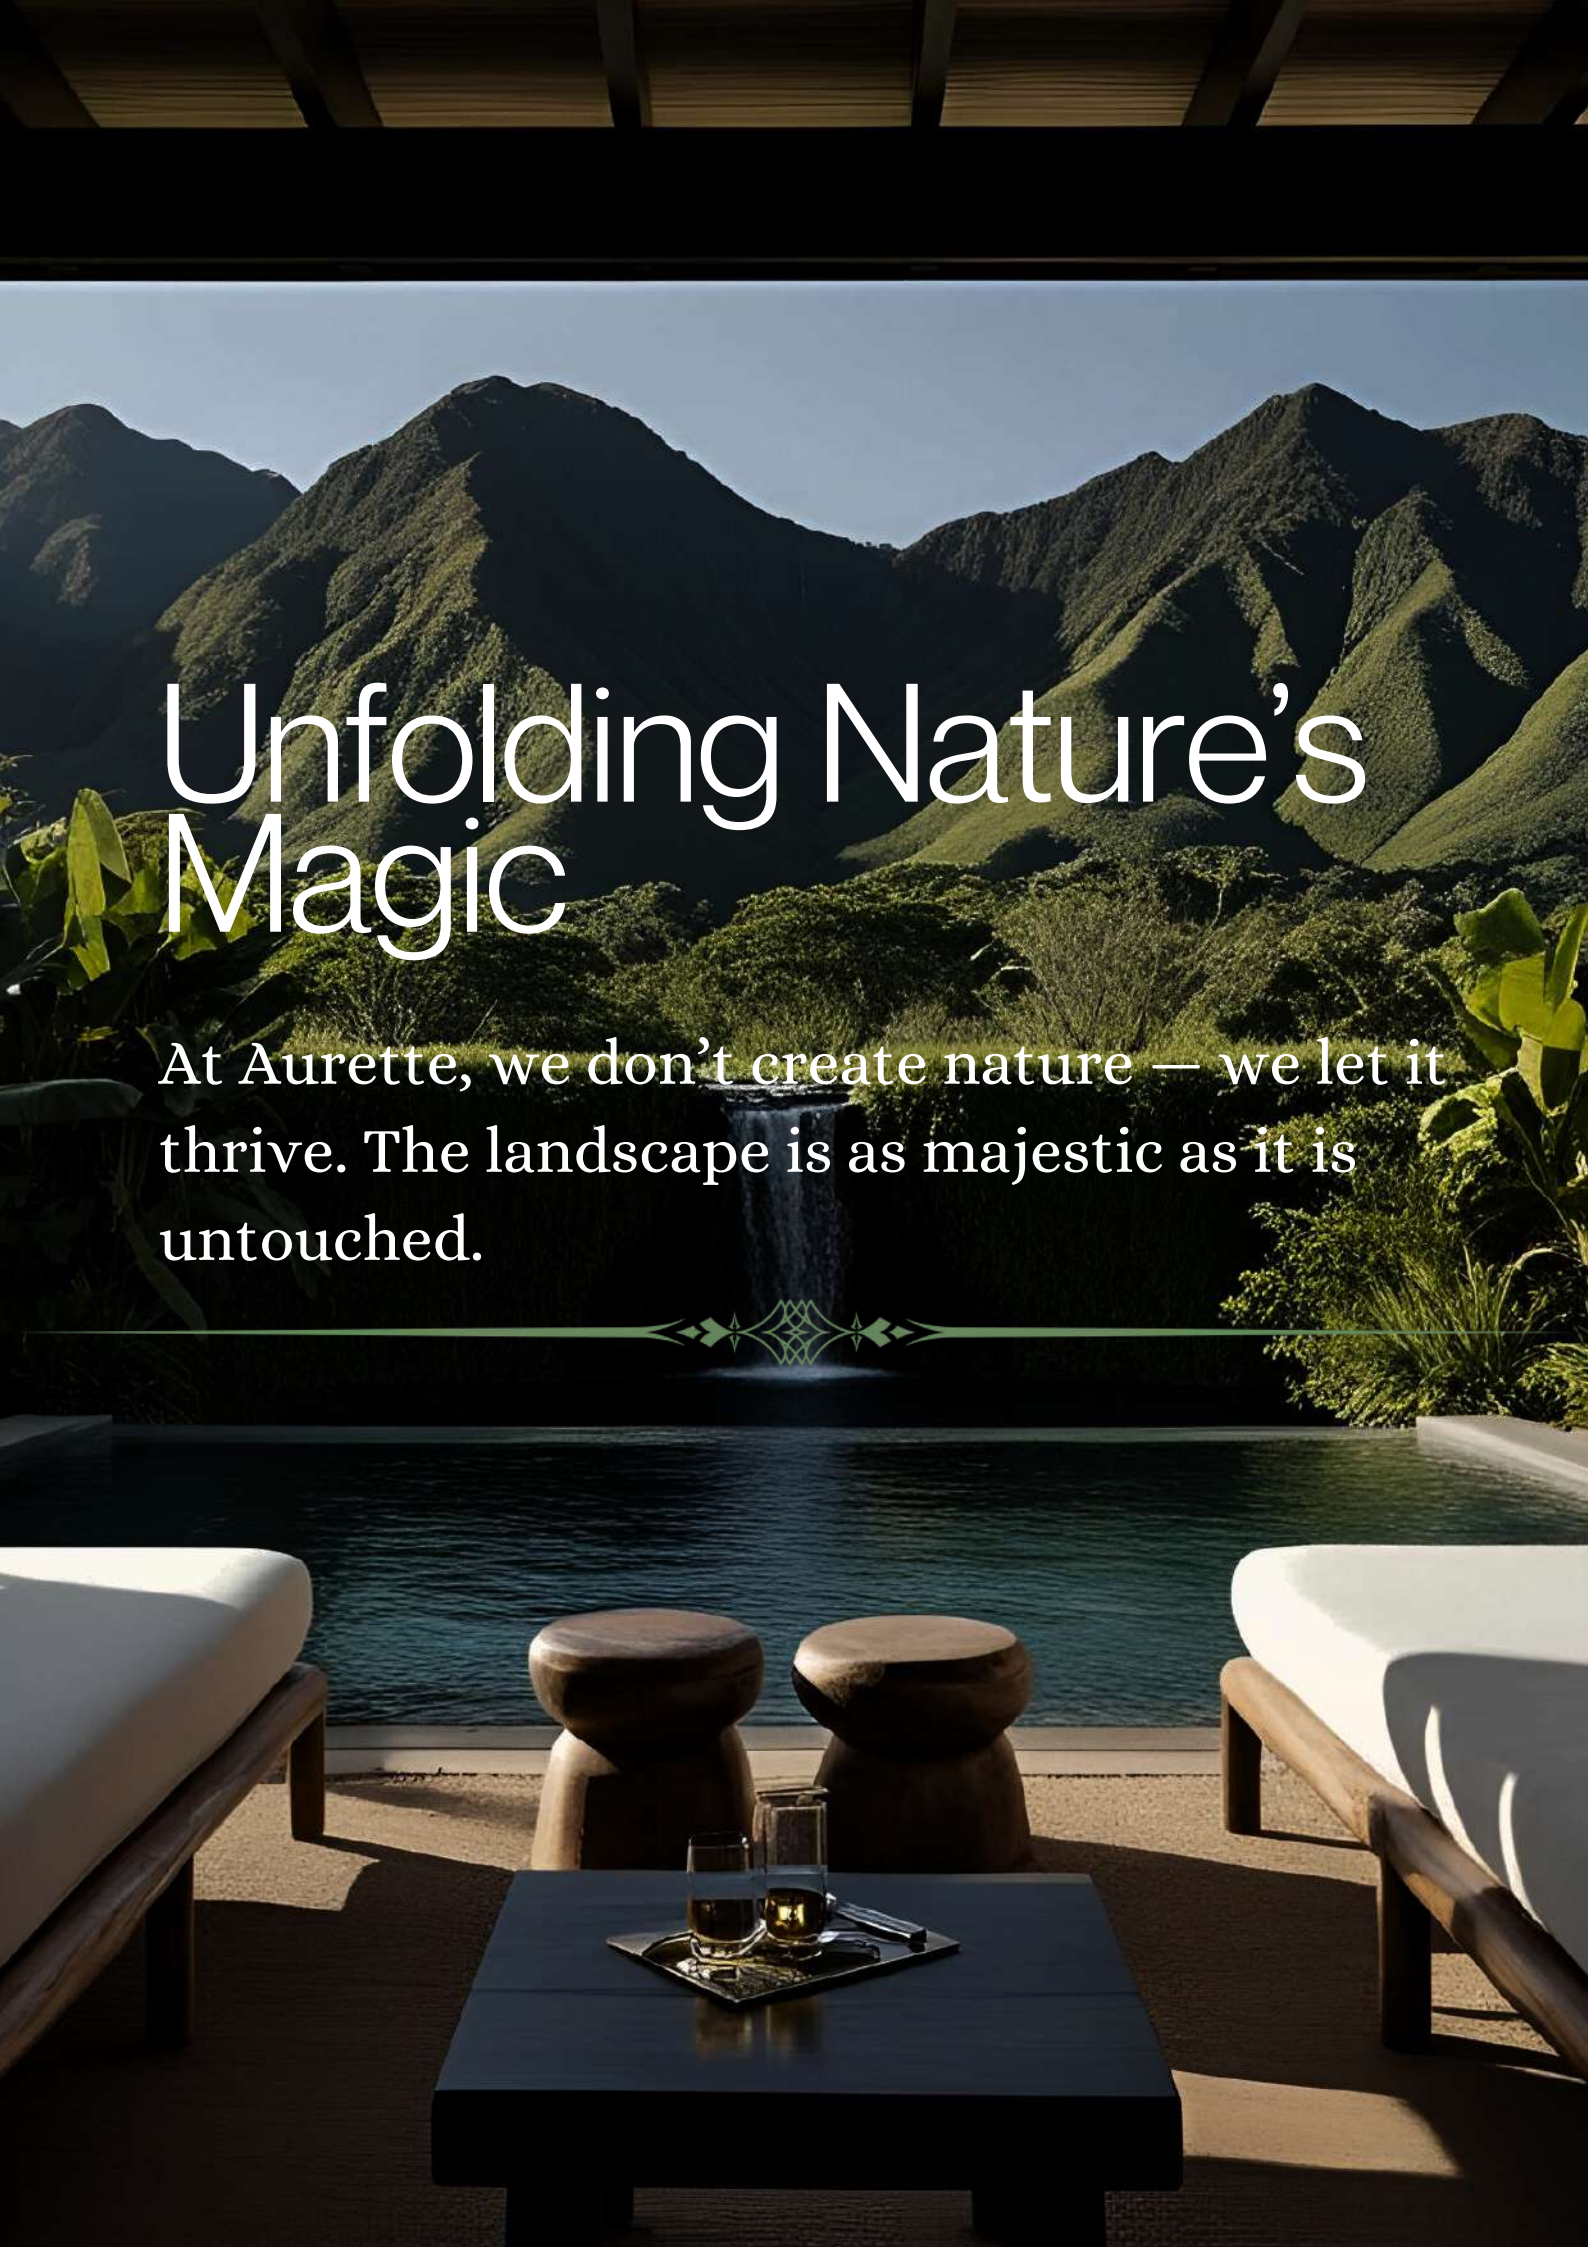

A sanctuary of soulful luxury, natural wonder, and profitable investment, Aurette is spread lavishly across 45 Bigha (approximately 11.2803 Hectares or 27.87 Acres) of pure, unspoiled terrain.

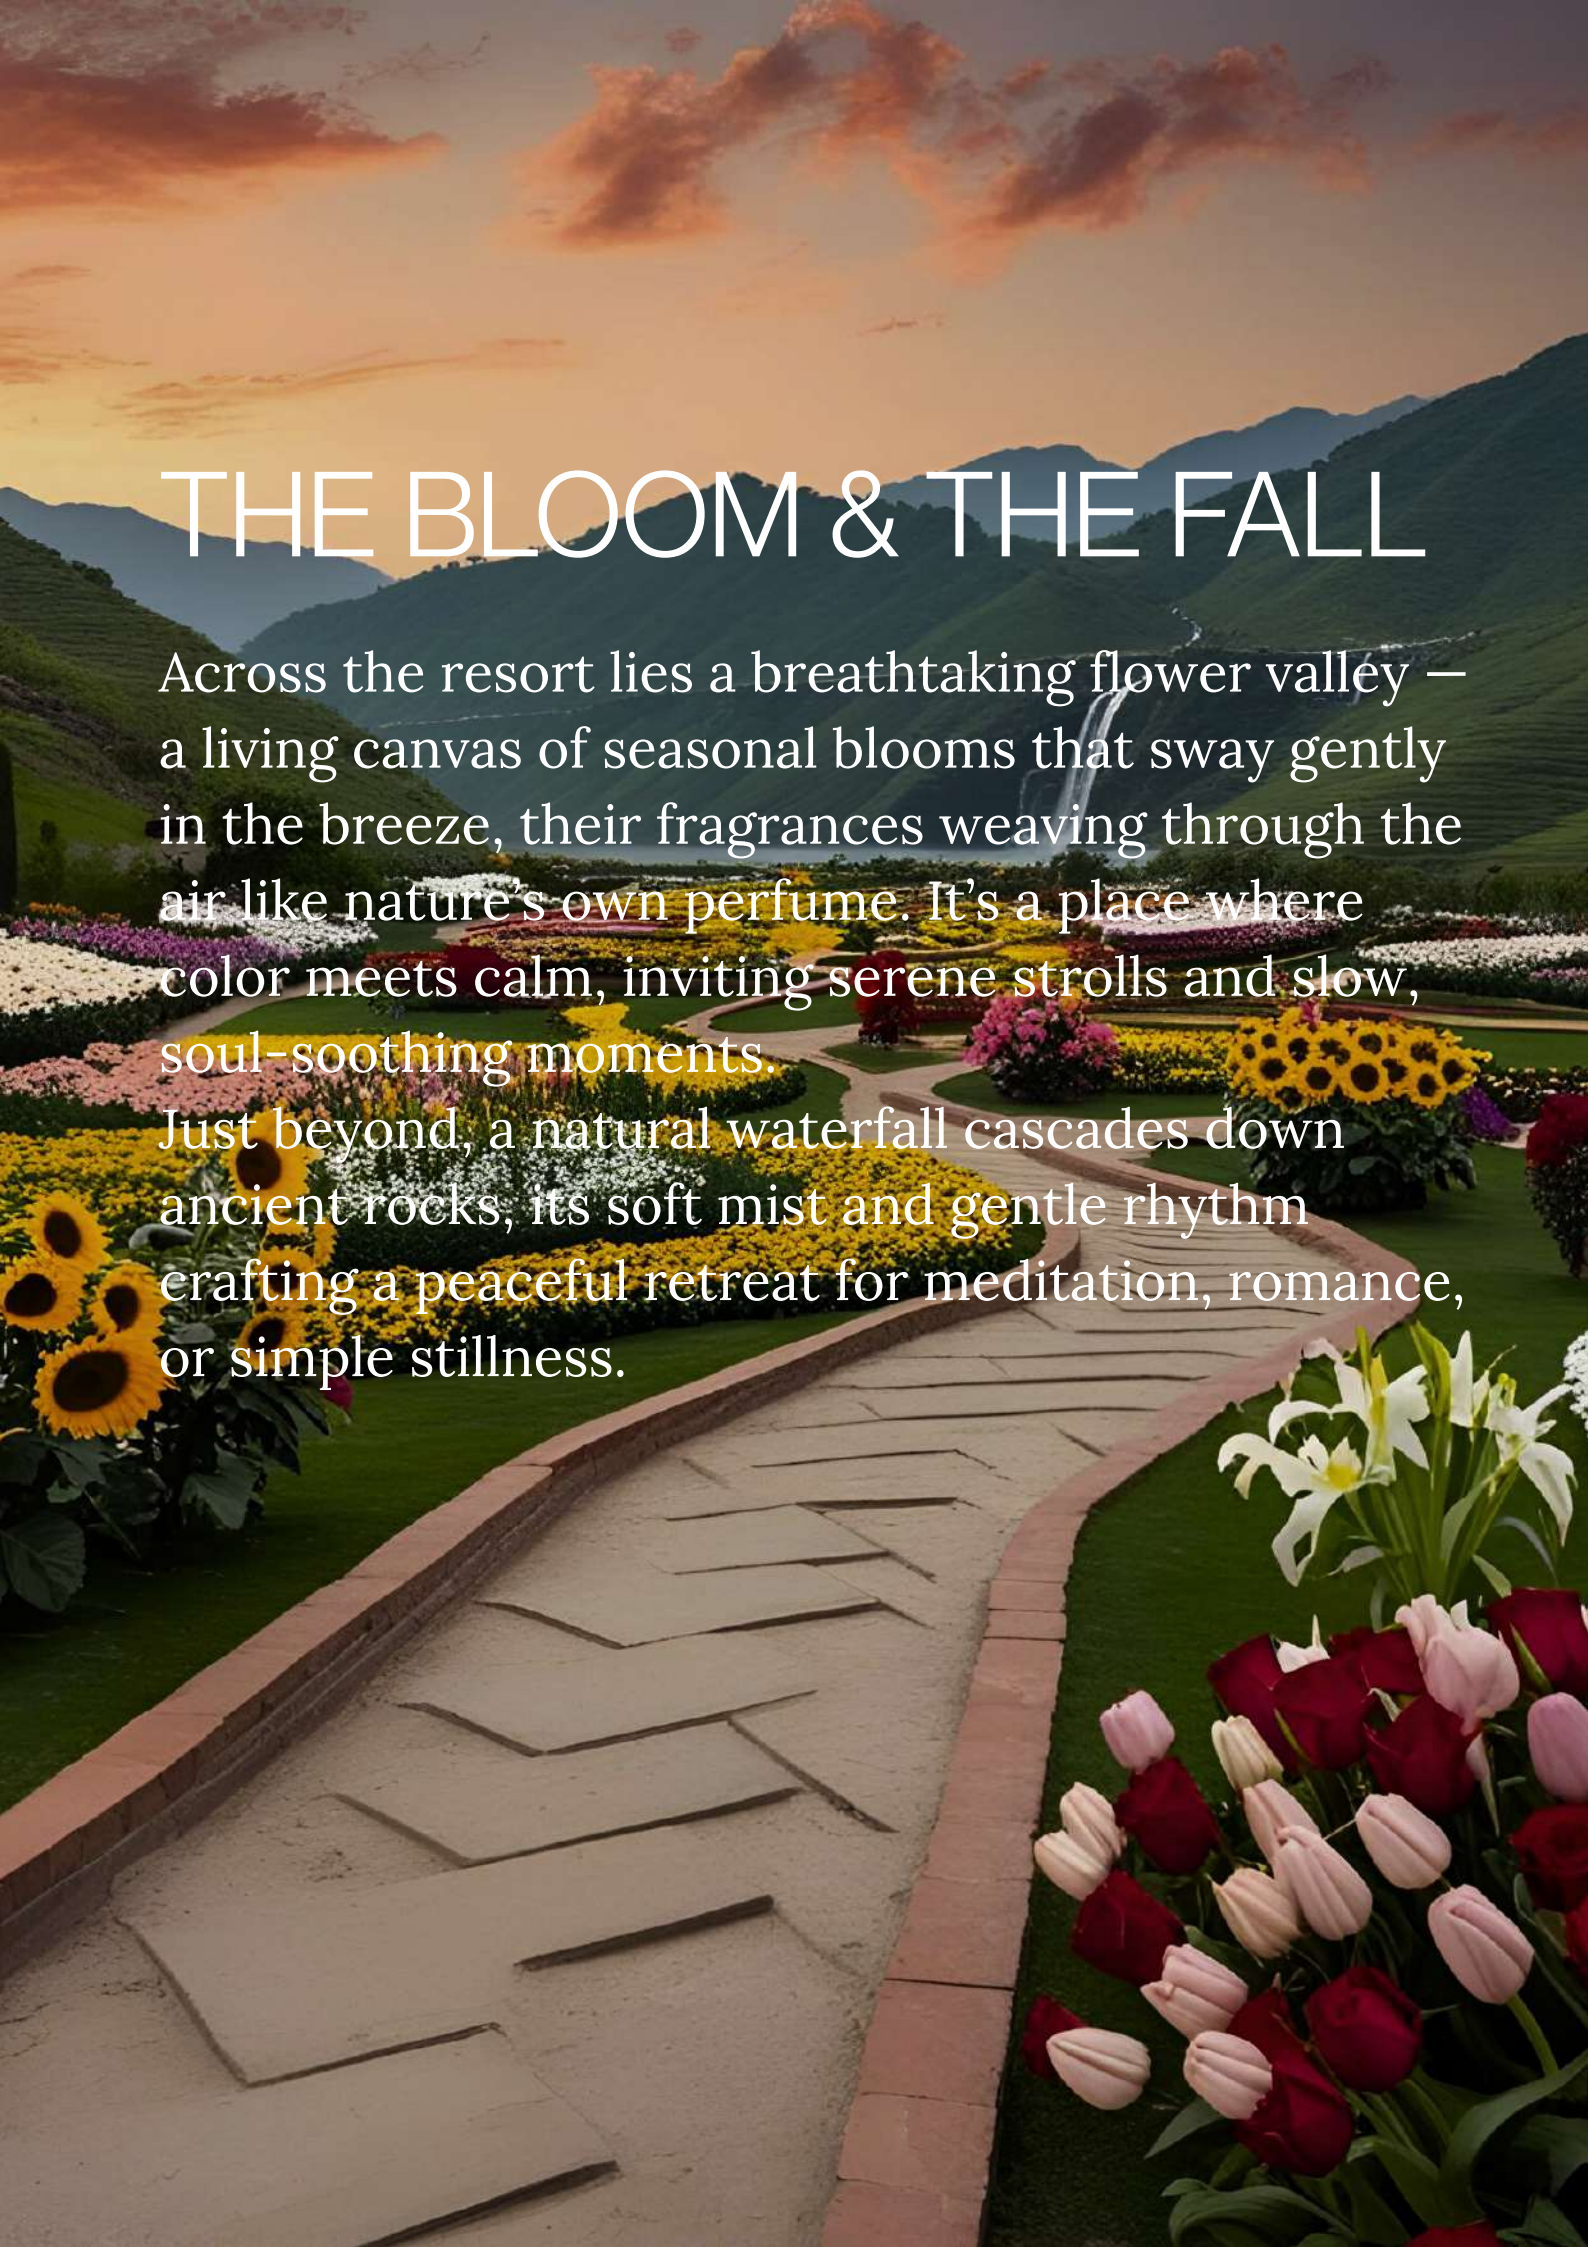

Here, ancient nature and modern elegance exist in harmony. The sound of birds replaces traffic, the fragrance of wildflowers replaces smoke, and your soul finds the silence it's been longing for.

Unfolding Nature's Magic

At Aurette, we don't create nature — we let it thrive. The landscape is as majestic as it is untouched.

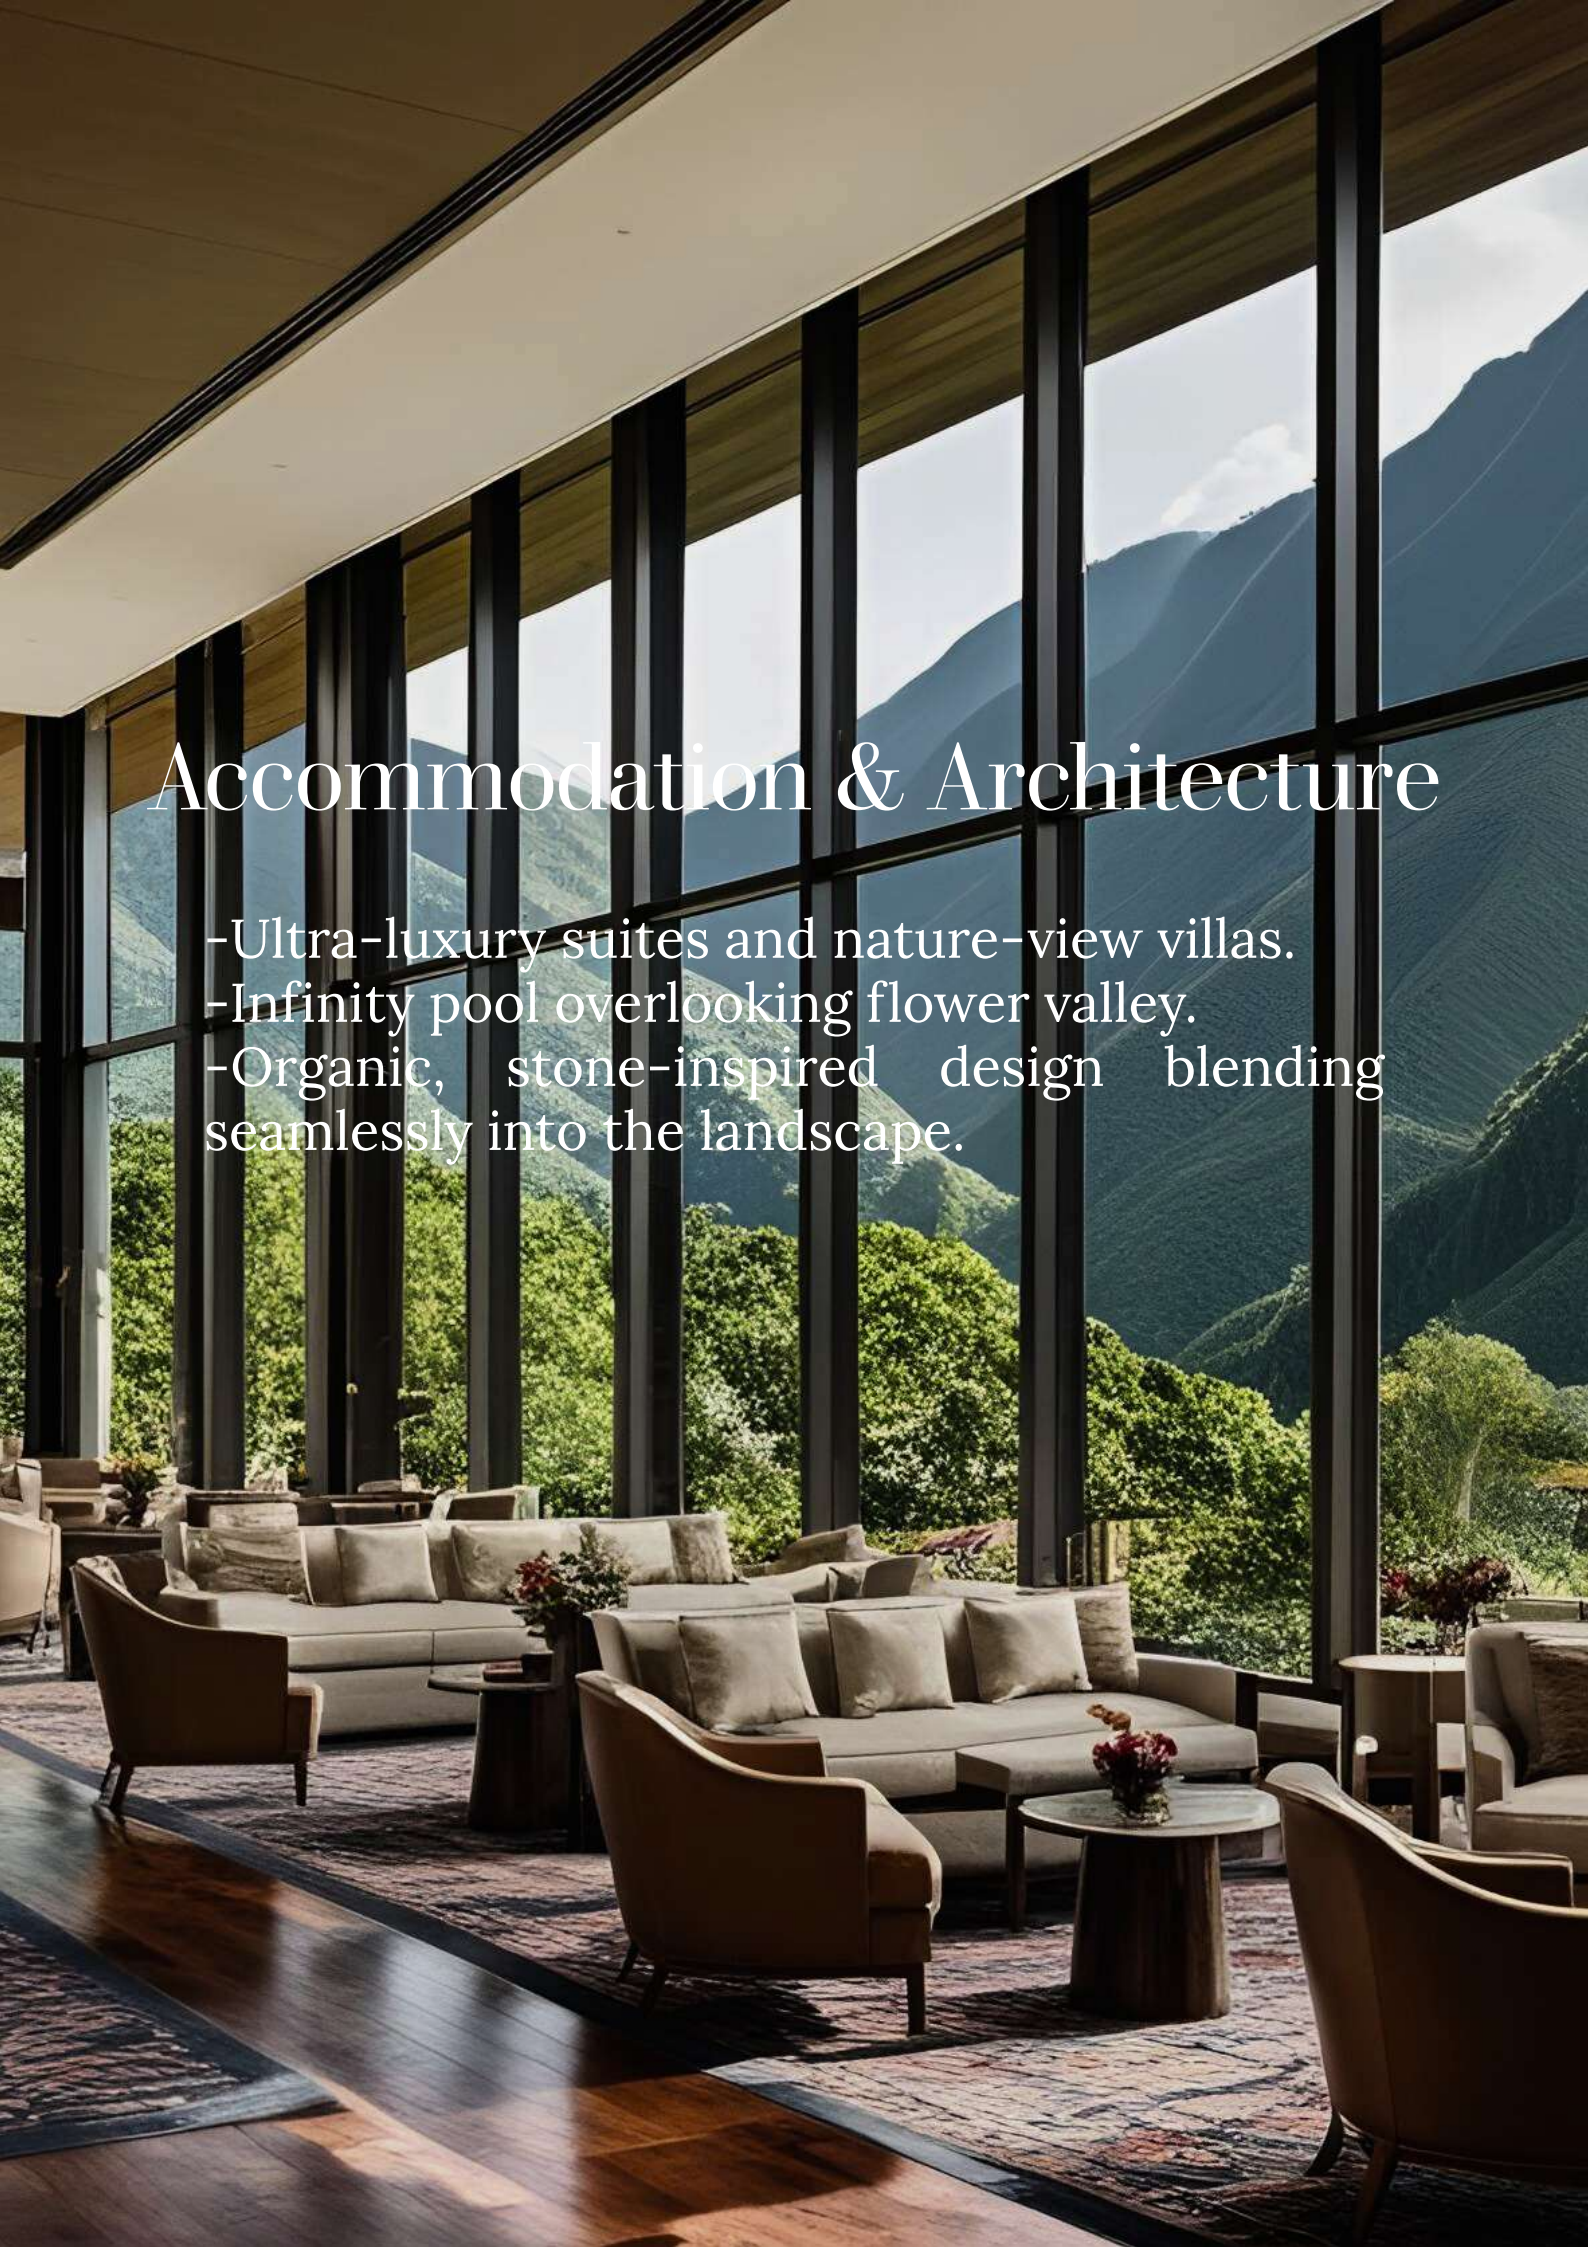

THE BLOOM & THE FALL

Across the resort lies a breathtaking flower valley – a living canvas of seasonal blooms that sway gently in the breeze, their fragrances weaving through the air like nature's own perfume. It's a place where color meets calm, inviting serene strolls and slow, soul-soothing moments.

Just beyond, a natural waterfall cascades down ancient rocks, its soft mist and gentle rhythm crafting a peaceful retreat for meditation, romance, or simple stillness.

A large, modern lounge area with floor-to-ceiling windows overlooking a mountain valley. The interior features light-colored sofas, armchairs, and a patterned rug. The view outside shows lush green hills and mountains under a clear sky.
